

THE T-LAZY-7 RANCH IN WINTER

2001/02 marks the 63rd/64th anniversary of the T-Lazy-7 Ranch located near the base of the world famous Maroon Bells. Well before skiing was popular, the Deane Family was hosting friends and guests on their working horse ranch.

Today the Deane family is still at it and the T-Lazy-7 offers more outdoor activities and unique facilities than any other similar location in the West. Operating under a special use permit #766 from the U.S. Forest Service in the White River National Forest, the Ranch offers rides into some of the most beautiful areas in the world. We are ready, willing, and able to meet the western hospitality needs of groups from, 2 to 200!

Only 15 minutes from Snowmass and 5 minutes from Aspen, the T-Lazy-7 spreads over 220 private acres whose seclusion is enhanced by a quarter of a million acres of surrounding National Forest. 9 quality rustic cabins for rent encircle our large western lodge that is complete with a hot tub. Miles of groomed road allow for snowmobiling, X-country skiing, or snow shoeing in our exquisite valley. Come join us for a fantastic day of fun.
